Report from Student Representative – Sophie Monich

- Students had some different events planned.
- 100th day, Red/White Day Just Dance, Fun Free Friday (good turnout for their events, everyone had fun.)
- $310.00 were raised from the Candy Guess/Fun Free Friday
Next fundraiser will be “Eating Lunch with a Friend” on March 18th.

7. GSSD Board Member’s report:

- Shannon has attended meetings regarding the request for increase of funding to put towards classroom supports.
- Shannon stated that they do understand that the amount to be funded provincially is not an adequate amount to be disbursed throughout the province.
- All in all, an agreement was made for classroom supports that GGSD is willing to work with but are aware that it is just simply not enough.
- There will be a Regional Symposium held sometime in November of 2024 and is inquiring if anyone would be willing to commit to attend the event. It would be great to see at least two people from the SCC Committee attend the function.
- Elections for the GSSD Board of Directors will be coming up this fall. Shannon has decided that he will be running again for his position.

8. Principal’s report: School Programming & Information

Grant Writing

- Applied for the Canada Post Grant - $5,000.00 (waiting to hear if we have been selected)
- Richardson Pioneer – Has been submitted, have not received to date.
- BASF Community Enhancement (Growing Home) – Nominated for the $25,000.00 enhancement program, has yet to be approved.

Donation Drive in Community

- Discussion of 50/50 – winner will get to hang with the principal for the day.
- Gift card ideas – discussion to buy gift cards and sell tickets
- Shawna will look into fundraising poster to share on social media regarding donations and will check if the school email will be eligible to set up an e-transfer account.

School Safety

- The school had their first lockdown practice, and it went very well. The school added a few more deadbolts as recommended by Sgt. Friesen

STF Job Action

- Possibly due for another full day strike, date is not determined and will most likely be made aware of on short notice.

School Supplies

- Total loss over the last 3 years is $4725.00.
- Shawna is going to hand out overdue reminders to all parents a student conferences.

- Moving forward we are going to have to think about different measures to take when collecting school fees/ school supplies.

Process and Volunteers

- Discussion of repainting the gym (possible date May 25th weekend)
- Volunteers will be needed.
- Ideally have the gym logos all primed before the May 25th weekend.
- Facilities will supply paint/brushes/drop sheets/lift etc.
- Jeff had reached out indicating that a donation of equipment for school projects is possible. There has not been a specific conversation about the lift for painting. So perhaps wording it something like..."Canora Equipment Rentals can be contacted to see if they would be willing to donate the use of a lift and/or sprayer for this project if the school division cannot provide."

9. Treasurer's report:

Chequing – $6996.26

Savings – $4352.19

Other –

(Joni stated that the "Savings" account, is set up as a Savings Account now.)

10. New Business

Winter Carnival on Friday March 22nd 1:00 – 3:00pm

Hot Chocolate, donuts & helpers – parent volunteers – Candace Smith, Roxilana Roberts, Kyle Roberts, Taunya Kondratoff

Motion to purchase hot chocolate and donuts – Taunya Kondratoff

Seconded by – Joni Petrychyn

Garden Plan

- Discussion to have a Soup Garden or Flower Garden. (Garden Plan would also continue in the May meeting with final decisions being made then).
- Funds available to pay student to take care of the garden over the summer months.

Fundraising

Lunches -

Purdy's -

Growing Smiles

- Have to sell $1600 worth of product to get free shipping. (can be too pricey). Decision has been made to disregard this fundraiser.

"Triple P" on March 20th

Conferences on March 19th & 20th

Pay School for 50/50 and hot lunch fundraisers.

Hot lunch $299.99 + 50/50 $2355.00 = $2654.99

Play Day - June 7th or 14th –

- Looking for someone to cook burgers (Terry Dennis, Ryan Monnette, Travis Menatnko???) – Roxy also discussed selling tokens for the burgers as it made the transactions a lot smoother during the busy day)

Schoolstart - School Supplies
Discussion / Options

12. Old business

a. Bill payments

Bills at CO-OP for Teacher Appreciation Week

- Lauren and Travis Mentanko donated $75.00 worth of food items.
